The Sacramento County Board of Education (County Board) ~~may~~ shall periodically conduct a self-evaluation to demonstrate accountability to the community and ensure that its governance effectively supports student achievement and attainment of the County Board's vision and goals.

The evaluation may address any areas of County Board responsibility, including the roles and responsibilities outlined in Board Bylaw 9000. The evaluation may also address objectives relating to County Board meeting operations, community relations, relationships among County Board members and with the Sacramento County Superintendent of Schools (County Superintendent), understanding of County Board and County Superintendent roles and responsibilities, or other boardsmanship skills.

The County Board may determine an evaluation method or instrument that measures a reasonable number of identified performance objectives, and may measure how County Board interactions, operations, and performance contribute to the mission, vision, and goals of the Sacramento County Office of Education.

The County Board shall be evaluated as a whole and not as individual members. However, individual County Board members may also be encouraged to use the evaluation process as an opportunity to privately assess their own personal performances as a Board member.

Although the County Board President may request County Board members to complete an evaluation instrument individually, discussion of the County Board's self-evaluation shall be conducted in open session. A facilitator may be used to assist with the evaluation process. The County Board may also invite the County Superintendent or others to provide input into the evaluation process.
